American Ghost Stories II
"The Lady in Lavender" is about the ghost of a woman who had been abused in life who murdered her husband to protect herself and her children. Read what happens to heal her soul by a little girl who lives in a similar situation in her life.
Maggie is an artist at heart. She makes scarecrows for the locals where she lives in Kentucky to make extra money. When her scarecrows start really making money as an art form, things start getting nasty.Her abusive cruel husband wants to get his hands on the money that he knows she is hiding. What happens when things get out of hand and Maggie needs to protect herself?
"A Little Trick or Treat Surprise" will sneak up on you. What starts out as a romantic love story about a little person that doesn't expect to ever find someone who can love her just as she is, takes on a sinister twist that you will not be expecting. When things get too perfect, don't drop your guard because life is never that easy.
In "Be Careful about the Promises You Make," be prepared to read what happens in this chilling tale. Have you ever wondered what happens if someone who promises to come back from the dead? What if that person is evil? When electronics start going haywire in this short story, and televisions start turning on by themselves, it was time to call in the Ghost Trackers. After you read this chiller, you may rethink using a ghost box or trying to communicate with the dead.

You will find the answers in these short stories in "American Ghost Stories II."
