The Year of the Fox David Rivers
At the beginning of the new year, Penny Stone desperately craves for a more exciting life. Aware that her fortieth birthday is rapidly approaching, she feels unfulfilled and even begins to doubt whether her husband Daniel still loves her. However, their lives inexplicably change when they receive a cryptic message and realise they have been given a riddle to solve. Aided by an enigmatic calendar, Penny and Daniel receive further clues and suspect supernatural forces are at work. They also notice that the calendar's images are bearing an uncanny resemblance to the events now unfolding in their lives. They know that their attempts to solve the riddle are having a profound effect on their relationship – bringing them closer together in a way that neither of them had imagined possible. Keen to continue with their rediscovered passion, they become obsessed with solving the riddle, unaware of the consequences that await them.
