As the oldest daughter of an impoverished family, Abigail Tompkins is a hardworking farm woman with little interest in romance. Yet when her beloved father passes away, she knows that she must take drastic steps to provide for her family.
Answering an ad for a mail order bride, she is surprised to find that the widowed farmer placing the ad is a young, gorgeous and captivating man; one who holds a second job as a tough deputy sheriff. Although at first totally resistant to the idea of loving another woman after the death of his beloved wife, Cal Hopkins finds himself thoroughly enchanted by the bright, funny, strong-willed BBW who tends his roses with an expert hand. Cal tempts Abigail to explore the possibilities of romance; and as the two of them heal their hearts in the wake of mutual tragedy, they just might fall in love.
