Disney plays host to over 2,000 weddings each year, with ceremonies occurring at both Walt Disney World and Disneyland. However, for many couples, a wedding on Disney property is an impossibility because of travel or cost constraints and because high demand reduces availability. And with the Disney Weddings Web site getting 60,000 visitors every month, it's clear that many brides would love to bring a little Disney magic to their weddings, even if they can't say, "I do" in Anaheim or Orlando.

In February 2007, Disney launched the Couture Wedding Collection by master party planner David Tutera. The collection features four different themes—Simply Chic, Classic Elegance, Cocktail Soiree, and Enchanted Garden—all created with David's signature attention to detail. These dream weddings are available exclusively to couples getting married in the Disney parks. But doesn't every woman deserve to feel like a princess on her wedding day?

Disney's Fairy Tale Weddings will help couples to plan a perfect wedding—complete with Disney charm—no matter where the ceremony is held. David Tutera guides readers through all the steps necessary to have a beautiful and memorable day. From flowers to food to lighting to decorations, David covers it all. The book also features special sections written by fashion designer Kirstie Kelly, who creates wedding gowns inspired by the Disney Princesses. With Disney's Fairy Tale Weddings as inspiration, any bride can turn her wedding into a fairy tale come true.
