The Mage: Awakening Erin McGowan
Katrina has never been a normal girl, but she always assumed she was alone in her abnormality. When her home life goes from bad to impossible, she runs away and finds an entire society of people who are different. Different…like her. Mages…like her. Katrina decides to enter the magical society and attend an academy in the Faerie realm to hone her talent and learn more about magic.

While Katrina struggles with classes, her unique talent, family, and new friends, accidents start happening to the faerie population at her school.

But are they really accidents, or does someone have it in for the Fae?
