My Letters From The Heart Tony A. Smith
Our life is made up of a collection of letters that become in the end a book that tells the story of our life which has been written in advance by GOD. Sometimes our letters are rewritten or influenced by others in some way. A few sentences are changed here and there until the final draft is completed. Mistakes are made and we learn from them while adding more words to our final story. They are then bound together to form a book with a beautiful cover wrapping the contents in magnificent splendor. Is there anyone you can think of who has made a significant difference in your life? Have you ever stopped to take the time to jot a few words to those special people to tell them how much they really mean to you? Why is it that many of us wait until it's too late and end up publishing those thoughts in an obituary section of our local newspaper. "My Letters From the Heart" is a non-fiction memoir written in an honest, heart-warming and emotional series of letters to friends, teachers, coaches, and family members. You will walk away a different person after having read these inspirational life-changing letters. They are wrapped in humor and salted with the realities of life. Perhaps you will start to think about leaving behind something in this life of lasting importance like "the letters of your own life."
