Perceptions Paula Mirando
Mina Macahia already has a difficult time pushing past her comfort zone as she makes the transition into university. To make the change more difficult, she must balance her time between her studies, her rapidly rising band, Perceptions, and the tight-knit group of friends she tends to lean on. Just as she gets the hang of navigating a new world of college bars and stages, the foundation of the band begins to crumble and Mina must learn to either fight for her own dreams or quit while the band is ahead.
