How to Use Feng Shui to Clear Your Clutter and to Overcome Procrastination Dr. E. Dok
Procrastination: this is the number one reason I hear people saying when I ask them what their problems are. What is exactly procrastination? It is delaying tasks, being lazy, not doing what is promised and it includes a number of other things as well.

You might ask, how is Feng Shui related to procrastination? In short: everything! Feng Shui is an energy and its studies show evidence of its effectiveness.

Clearing your clutter is one important step in overcoming procrastination, because it will create a much better energy that is alive and doesn't let you hang in nothing.

In this book I will teach you exactly what you should clear, how you should clear it and why, using the principles of Feng Shui. I also describe extensively the link between Feng Shui and procrastination and how you can use it to get out of the cycle! All of this and more in this book.
