Grave Accusations: A True Story of Lies, Family Secrets, and Death (True Crime (St. Martin's Paperbacks)) Andrea Egger
A shotgun blast blows away beautiful thirty-one-year-old Monica Dunn, the mother of three young daughters, in the bedroom of her suburban home. Her husband stands only feet away from her. Is it suicide or murder?

Police officer Paul Dunn is suspected of killing his estranged wife. Maintaining his innocence, he is ostracized by his fellow officers and friends, is condemned by Monica's well-connected family, loses custody of his children, and is finally indicted for murder by a grand jury.

As a trial that gain national attention ensues, Monica reached from beyond the grave with an avenging testament. But will her chilling words convict Paul Dunn, or free him?

A real-life whodunit, Grave Accusations exposes the shocking secrets of a doomed marriage and a sensational trial that would destroy lives and tear apart a town with whispers of betrayal, obsessive romance, and violent death.
