In Dinesh D'Souza's America he comes to a reasoned defense of the country he has grown to love and take pride in. D'Souza derails the Progressives allegations of theft and oppression. He provides insights into the questions of whether America was conceived in inequality or justice and liberty. These insights include…
• How America is committing suicide through the anti-colonial movement.
• How Progressives seek to portray the country as America the Inexcusable.
• The Progressive have rewritten the history of Native Americans and Blacks is in America to assure victimhood.
• He compares the path to success for minorities by as expressed by Booker T. Washington to what the Progressives agenda has proposed.
• What the capitalistic system has produced for the poor, both in America and around the globe.
• He exposes government, the biggest thief of all.
• And much more…
With this time saving book summary of Dinesh D'Souza's America, Imagine A World Without Her, his stunning conclusions expose the accusations made by Progressive against America in a reasoned factual way.
