Excerpt: ... LECTURE VI. THE SIGNS OF THE SECOND ADVENT IN THE STATE OF THE WORLD AT LARGE. BY THE REV. J. W. BROOKS, M.A., RECTOR OF EAST RETFORD. Luke XXI. 25--28. "And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; men's hearts Jailing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh." I Feel awed, brethren, by the solemnity, and embarrassed by the magnitude of the subject, which I have been specially requested to bring before you,--viz. "The Signs of the Second Advent in the state of the world at large." They are on the one hand such as to impress my own mind with a deep persuasion, that we are on the eve of events of immense--immense importance to mankind: they will, on the other hand, require me to enter so much into detail, that I could not venture to trespass to such an extent upon your patience, were I not encouraged by the assurance, that the subject must excite a more than ordinary interest in those who truly believe the Word of God. I am admonished, however, by the greatness of the task, that I must not occupy time by remarks which are not absolutely necessary; and will therefore content myself with earnestly beseeching you to lift up your hearts in silent prayer to God, that his Word may now be accompanied by the demonstration of his Holy Spirit, and be mixed with faith in us all. The signs to which I have to draw your attention may be classed into political, natural, and religi...
