A Course In Miracles In Sight: A Guide For The Visual Learner Christopher R Scott
Through the language of sight and picture, here is one offered a unique perspective inside A Course In Miracles, an “epic masterpiece of spiritual ontology and psychological architecture”. Comprised of 300 diagrams and images, some commentary and many course quotes, this book invites one to gain a detailed, and perhaps quicker, comprehension of the course’s vanguard teachings. It focuses heavily on the course’s theory, from which the practical applications for living in "the happy dream” naturally flow. Here are unearthed the answers to some of the looming mysteries that have confounded humanity since its dawning, including:
-Who you are in Truth, and how this is blocked from your awareness.
-Why there is misery and death if an eternal loving God created us. And why God could never have created them, or this world of form and fear.
-How all relationships here are founded upon conflict, and why all judgement is self-attack.
-The only way, and place, that situations are healed and peace is restored.

The reader/ viewer of this book is welcomed to explore A Course In Miracles in a new way, and learning may be checked with the included 75 question quiz. This book is for course students of all levels (the quiz however may be difficult for newcomers), and for anyone else with interests in divinity, metaphysics and psychology.

Diagrams are pinch expandable on mobile devices with the free Kindle Reader App, and in general become more schematic beginning in chapter two.
