I Don't Want a Divorce Cindy Miller
This book was written for couples who believe in the power of the resurrection and are seeking that same resurrecting power for their marriage. It is not a book to be read; it is a book designed to make you work! When you join yourself with a pastor or counselor for the purpose of healing your marriage, you commit to answering questions, being painfully truthful, searching your heart, reviewing your marriage, strengths and weaknesses, setting goals for change, and doing work required to move the goal off the paper and into your life. This book does not take the place of your pastor or counselor; however, this book will take you on a similar journey.
