This book entitled The Rings of truth : Dying words is the first book of the series The rings of truth . It is merely about Jessica Kinsey a ploce officer finding the truth aboth a killer named rafael

Jessica Kinsey is a police officer that has found herself being demoted from detective to that of patrol. In the course of her day, she witnesses and murder and tries to take down the assailant. His escape is one part of the story. What she finds will lead her down some dark alleys with a killer named Rafael. There is heat between them, but their main concern is the protection of the innocent. To that end they will have to work together against an enemy that is not exactly a stranger to Rafael. He has no visible emotion, but maybe the heat between them will melt his icy veins.

Ring of Truth Part 6
Money is the root
Jessica Kinsey knew that going into a profession of being a police officer was going to place her in danger from time to time. She gets involved in a political scandal that has far reaching implications. She begins to see that life is not exactly black and white. Her quest to find the answers about the ring has brought her to an organization that knows what it means to fight evil. Rafael is the deadly component that she finds herself falling for on a more than professional level. She has just survived a possible execution by the enemy and now they have to get back to the estate before it’s too late. The rings true purpose will come to pass and both her and Rafael will have to decide what they’re going to do about it.
