Volume 15, Tome IV: Kierkegaard's Concepts: Individual to Novel (Kierkegaard Research: Sources, Reception and Resources) Steven M. Emmanuel, William McDonald, Jon Stewart
Kierkegaardâ€™s Concepts is a comprehensive, multi-volume survey of the key concepts and categories that inform Kierkegaardâ€™s writings. Each article is a substantial, original piece of scholarship, which discusses the etymology and lexical meaning of the relevant Danish term, traces the development of the concept over the course of the authorship, and explains how it functions in the wider context of Kierkegaardâ€™s thought. Concepts have been selected on the basis of their importance for Kierkegaardâ€™s contributions to philosophy, theology, the social sciences, literature and aesthetics, thereby making this volume an ideal reference work for students and scholars in a wide range of disciplines.
