How to make a 1940s style flower necklace from left over yarns Vintage Visage
Vintage Visage present a nice and easy way to make a vintage wartime 1940s style flower necklace. The flowers are made from knitting, and can also be used individually for pins and brooches or to decorate hats, clothes, bags and more.
You can make the necklace in 2 colours as seen in the photo, or just one classic colour such as cream or black- or in lots of different colours to use u all of your leftover yarns! They are so sweet and deceptively easy to make- so be careful as they may become addictive! They make a lovely gift as well as something pretty and crafty for yourself.
