Night Calls the Green Falcon (A Short Story) Robert R. McCammon

In the 1950s, Cray Flint was the handsome, dashing star of the serial The Green Falcon. Now, decades later, he spends his days in his rundown apartment reminiscing about the time when he played a superhero. When Julie, Cray's young neighbor, is killed by the infamous Fliptop Killer, Cray is propelled to don his green cape one more time. In pursuit of justice, Clay becomes the superhero that he used to pretend to be. Funny, dark, and gripping, Night Calls the Green Falcon tells the story of an aging man getting one last chance to relive his glory.
