Pulpits and Pink Lipstick: A Woman's Essays on Youth Ministry Tabitha Caplinger
This book, Pulpits and Pink Lipstick, is a collection of essays giving practical advice to those ready to jump into the mess. From my personal experience I hope to help other young women successfully pursue the call of God on their life. While some of the book is geared specifically to youth ministry, most of it can be helpful to a woman starting in any pastoral position. It's a short, easy read. One that I hope will help and challenge while providing a few laughs.
