War on the Eastern Front, 1941-1945: The German Soldier in Russia James Lucas
Theis book provides very interesting details on subjects rarely addressed on the Russian Front. I loved it. Much has been written about the tanks and infantry, but theis book teaches about the self propelled artillary, the rockets, staying warm, marching, terrain etc! This book is unashamed to detail the bravery, endurance, guile, skill and professionalism of the brave German soldier and his equally brave Russian foe. His writing style is excellent, the chapters and topics are short and sweet.
