Burning Choice (Trevor's Harem Book 3) Aubrey Parker
I've been in this billionaire's game for a month — but something changed when half my competition was eliminated.

It feels less like a contest now … and more like an experiment.

I shouldn't have made it past the first round. I don't know how I did; I'm not special like the others. When I ask Daniel, he just tells me it's complicated. Then he talks about brain chemistry, how love and sex are an addiction. He tells me how wild animals claim mates, and how he's claimed me.

The stakes are higher.

The competition is fiercer.

I should have been kicked out long ago, but Daniel tells me I might be the needle in the haystack the company has been looking for.

Sometimes I'm afraid of them all, even of Daniel.

But It's like I'm on a tether. I couldn't leave if I wanted to.
