2013 Chinese Astrology Calendar - Year of the Snake Master Simon Wong
For thousands of years the ancient science of Chinese astrology has been used to pinpoint the best days and times for important activities. From farmers in old times, to investors in the modern age, many can attest to the advantages of choosing the perfect moment. The importance of selecting an auspicious day for events such as weddings, signing contracts and moving house should not be underestimated.

Master Simon Wong's 2013 Chinese Astrology Calendar makes this priceless information available to English speakers in a simple and easy to follow format.

For each day of the year, the calendar tells you the overall outlook for the day, the type of energy, suitable activities and the best times to do them (based on a system known as the 12 Earthly Branches), as well as things you should avoid.
