Best friends Andrea and Mandy share almost everything. They live in the same neighborhood, spend each morning discussing their lives, and never keep secrets from each other. Except one. Mandy has been secretly lusting over Andrea since the first day they met.

She has always wanted to open up to her but knew that she would be rejected.
On the day that this story takes place, Mandy has had enough. She can no longer control the desires she has for Andrea but she wonders what the result will be. If she makes a move she could lose her best friend forever but if she does not she could miss out on the greatest sexual experience of her life.

All she can think about when she is with Andrea is all of the things she wants to do to her, and how she can please Andrea more than any man ever could. What will happen when Mandy opens up to Andrea and tells her about her feelings? Will she be rejected and lose her best friend or will she get all that she desires? Will Andrea regret the decisions she makes?
