The Grace of Goodbye Jared M. Glovsky
"The Grace of Goodbye" is an adventure/suspense novel featuring Dane Deforest, private investigator, who was recently referred to by a reader as "Holden Caulfield and James Dean meets Bulldog Drummond."

Returning to his small hometown in northern Wisconsin after a 13-year absence to help an old girlfriend find a lost child, he discovers a Pandora's box of deceit and crime and soon finds himself in way over his head, going face-to-face with a man who once was just a high school bully, but who now is ready - and willing - to kill.

Dane Deforest is a blustery character. He's the guy at the end of the bar you don't want to mess with, AND the guy who is the butt of everyone's jokes at the same time. He is truly Generation X's PI! With sharp, fast-paced dialogue and humor, "The Grace of Goodbye" is not only a page-turner but also the poignant story of a man coming to grips with his past. It proves you can go home again - "Just once. To set things straight."
