It is never too early for girls and young women to understand they are not just a hap-hazard mix of genes or DNA, but have been orchestrated to perfection down to the tiniest fleck of color in the eye or turn of the nose. This book is specifically for young women and girls, the cream off the top condensed from “The Science of Personal Dress Complete Study.” It is designed to make available a fully illustrated clear concise overview of the art of dress to support those "just wanting to know more about myself" and becoming intrigued with the knowledge that there are universal principles which are consistent, orderly and thrilling to recognize in oneself. For easy understanding, the 4 Season templates are presented here first through “feelings and emotions” which are associated with real life tangible objects nature uses as tools to create everything. The energy of each season expresses in form on earth as Spring “Life,” Summer “Beauty,” Autumn “Strength,” and Winter “Poise.” And this includes people. There are colors, lines and symbol associations that are readily recognizable and learning the universal language this way greatly facilitates understanding how we fit into the scheme of things. All Homebase season colors and Inter-season colors are grouped and illustrated. The four geometric body shapes are also detail-illustrated and show how and why there are correct lines for each body type. Shows how the size and placement of a person’s face features impact size of patterns, fabrics, and accouterment choices in clothing. The relevance of a person’s Inter-season characteristics are shown and traits detailed i.e. curly or straight hair, freckles, thick or thin skin, blushing, hair texture, widow’s peak, eyebrows and lashes. How-to combine basic Homebase season and Inter-season colors are illustrated, itemized and described. Characteristics of skintones and Inter-season characteristic traits are listed and given explanation. This work is a classic solid first step guaranteed to expand awareness and begin a remarkable journey seeing life through vibrational energy of which we all are a part. Perfect for astute and creative teenagers. This book is not fashion! It is a thesis regarding what is appropriate, comfortable and natural for each body. Thus, personal dress becomes an exacting science by simple formula. Based on universal principles of color and line, this study assures that good taste can be learned…absolutely!
