Nicole Rogers has never known true love, but that soon changes when the adopted son of her mother's new love comes to live with her.

They share a house and a bathroom, which always leads to awkward moments and intense feelings that grab both of them by surprise. They hide from the intensity of their longing for each other, but it's not long after their parents go off on a cruise that things begin to heat up. They are not related in any way and the parents have not married. It's a matter of their bodies ruling their minds. Are their hearts destined to become one?
